

Problem Statement

Find the vector representation of words from different languages in a common vector space. These vector representations are called multilingual word embeddings.

For this project we are focusing on bilingual word embeddings. Bilingual word embeddings represent words from two different languages. The languages chosen for this project are Hindi and English. We have chosen Hindi because it is a low resource language and therefore we want to see how the algorithm performs on low resource languages.